

PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Publication

The Hit The Floor Happening
A new training experience in Montreal for all dancers!

Montreal, July 17, 2019 - Hit The Floor is proud to present a new dance experience featuring over 10 hours of intensive training with world-leading dance educators. Stimulate your artistic creativity with top-rate workshops and give it all during the auditions to become a finalist for the 2020 Ambassadors Program.

World-class Choreographers

Five world-renowned teachers will come to Montreal to offer a unique training experience for Canadian dancers. Cora Kozaris (Toronto) and Chase Bowden (Los Angeles) will respectively teach a contemporary workshop, while Candace Brown (New York) and Larkin Poynton (San Diego) will teach an urban dance workshop. The experience will end with a commercial-style workshop and will be taught by none other than Antoine Troupe, a Los Angeles artist who has worked with Prince, Chris Brown and Kehlani.

Information and tickets available online: <https://htfhappening.eventbrite.ca>

About Hit The Floor

Created in 2010 by the dancer and entrepreneur Nicolas Bégin, Hit The Floor has flourished over the years and is now considered as a world-class dance event. Hit The Floor presents one of the world's largest multi-style dance competitions. The mission of the event; contribute to the development of the dance community worldwide.

About The 7 Fingers

The 7 Fingers is an artistic collective like no other, exploring the infinite possibilities available through the mixture of artistic forms. Open since 2018, the 7 Fingers Studios are at once a creative space, a venue for professional artists, and an exceptional setting for events of all kinds.

hitthefloor.ca | Facebook | YouTube | Instagram | Twitter

- 30 -

Source:

Hit The Floor

For information and interview:

Isabelle Dutrisac

C : 418 928-5180

Isabelle.dutrisac@hitthefloor.ca