GATINEAU, June 14, 2022 – The seventh edition of Hit The Floor Gatineau ended yesterday, following four days of dance competition. Approximately 3,000 dancers took part in the world-class dance event at the Casino du Lac-Leamy and performed nearly 800 routines in front of six internationally renowned judges. About fifty dance schools took part in the competition and converged to Gatineau between June 10 and 13.

“This edition of HTF Gatineau was incredible! We couldn't have concluded the 2022 Tour otherwise! We are fortunate to be part of such a passionate and exciting community,” explains Nicolas Bégin, founder and director of Hit The Floor. “We can say that HTF Gatineau 2022 was a success on all fronts, special thanks to the participants, the partners and the team behind the event. The 2022 Tour is over and we would like to thank all the stakeholders,” he concludes.

The New Gatineau Champions

It was during the All-Stars Showcase that the dancers of the eight favorite acts of the judges performed for the last time in the hope of winning one of the three scholarships and the title of Champion. CONVERSION from Studio District 5 were crowned champions on Sunday night and walked away with a $1,000 purse. Studio Party Time's BADCREW and Dancing Soma's NEVER ENOUGH finished 2nd and 3rd respectively in Gatineau's All-Stars Showcase. 2nd place won a $500 purse and 3rd place won $250.
