Hit The Floor Gatineau

The HTF Gatineau event postponed to June 2022

GATINEAU, February 3, 2022 – Faced with the sanitary measures currently in place for COVID-19, the Hit The Floor team confirms today that the 7th edition of HTF Gatineau, initially scheduled for March 17 to 20, will finally take place from June 10 to 13, 2022.

After discussions with the participating dance schools, artists, partners, members of the board and other actors involved, the Hit The Floor team decided to postpone the event for a few months. Following the evaluation of all possible alternatives over the past few weeks, the postponement of HTF Gatineau is the best decision for the health of the participants, the team and the community.

“Our mission for the next few months is to keep the dance community motivated and to allow dancers to develop their passion. The Hit The Floor team thanks everyone involved over time: we look forward to welcoming you to Gatineau in June,” said Nicolas Bégin, director and founder of Hit The Floor.

The other dates of the 2022 Hit The Floor Tour remain unchanged for Saint-Hyacinthe (April 8 to 10) and Lévis (May 19 to 23).

About Hit The Floor Creations

Hit The Floor will hold its 7th edition in Gatineau in June 2022. Convinced of being able to offer a world-class dance event, Nicolas Bégin, dancer and entrepreneur especially known for his career with So You Think You Can Dance Canada and America's Best Dance Crew, decided to create the Hit The Floor dance competition, which is now recognized as an unmissable event in the national and international artistic community. Hit The Floor quickly became a tourism and cultural event by offering supercharged artistic productions (Showcase All-Stars), exhibitor markets and one of the most important multi-style dance competitions.
